Creative Spaces Crows Nest AIR 2020

* indicates a required field

Creative spaces in collaboration with Sunshine Coast Council is excited to launch The Crows Nest Artist in Residence. Perched atop the Maroochy Sailing Club, the Crows Nest is a small space with views out across Maroochy River towards Mt Coolum. Situated on beautiful Chambers Island, accessed via a footbridge, this new creative studio could be yours, free for up to three months.

The space would suit writers, digital and fine artists and creatives with a lighter footprint. It can accommodate one person looking for inspiration and solitude or a collective of two looking to collaborate in paradise.

EOI open year round. Successful applicants will be notified as per below:

Autumn residency - late January 2020

Winter residency - late April 2020

Spring residency - late July 2020

Summer 2021 residency - late October 2020

In exchange for this space, you may be asked to contribute to a public outcome such as workshops, open studio, exhibition or interview.
